- 1.2 The Branch may make a complaint involving an allegation against a member or an officer by giving to the member or officer a notice in writing that states that the person is starting a procedure for resolving a dispute in accordance with this constitution.
- 1.3 A person who makes an appeal must follow the process under clause 5.14.
- 1.4 A notice must set out the allegation to which the dispute relates and whom the allegation is against and give enough information to ensure that a person against whom an allegation is made is fairly advised of the allegation concerning them, with sufficient details given to enable them to prepare a response.

2 (Person who makes complaint has right to be heard):

- 2.1 A person who makes a complaint has a right to be heard before the complaint is resolved or any outcome is determined. If the Branch makes a complaint, a Committee Member may exercise that right on behalf of the Branch.
- 2.2 Without limiting the manner in which the member, an officer, or the Branch may be given the right to be heard, they must be taken to have been given the right if—
 - (a) they have a reasonable opportunity to be heard in writing or at an oral hearing (if one is held); and
 - (b) an oral hearing is held if the decision maker considers that an oral hearing is needed to ensure an adequate hearing; and

- 3.3 If the respondent is the Branch, an officer may exercise the right on behalf of the Branch.
- 3.4 Without limiting the manner in which a respondent may be given a right to be heard, a respondent must be taken to have been given the right if—

 - (b) the complaint does not appear to disclose or involve any allegation of the following kind:
 - (i) that a member or an officer has engaged in material misconduct or brought the Association into disrepute:

 - (e) the conduct, incident, event, or issue giving rise to the complaint has already been investigated and dealt with under the constitution; or
 - (f) there has been an undue delay in making the complaint.
- 6 (Decision makers): A person may not act as a decision maker in relation to a complaint if two or more members of the Committee consider that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the person may not be impartial or able to consider the matter without a predetermined view.
- 7 (Right of Appeal) Following the determination of a dispute under clause 4, or an appeal at a General Meeting under Rule 5.14(c), a member may lodge a final appeal with the National Association. This appeal must be submitted in writing to the National Secretary within 14 days of the Branch's decision, specifying the grounds for appeal. The National Association's disputes and complaints resolution provisions, as set out in its constitution, will apply, and its decision shall be final and binding on the Branch and the member.
- 8 (Costs):
- 8.1 After determining a complaint, if the decision maker finds that the complaint was vexatious, made in bad faith, or frivolous, they may order the complainant to pay all or part of the costs reasonably incurred by the Branch, Association and/or the respondent in relation to the complaint.
 - 8.2 In making such an order, the decision maker shall consider the circumstances, including but not limited to:

 - (b) whether the complainant had reasonable grounds for making the complaint;
 - (c) whether the complainant acted in good faith; and
